

Russian as a Foreign Language

Higher School of Economics in Perm offer Russian Language course to international students with language levels from beginning to advanced. Studying in small groups, students will develop their reading, writing, and speaking skills through a unique combination of conversational practice with native speakers and the latest technology in language instruction.

During the course You will learn grammar of the Russian language.

You will get listening, writing, speaking and intercultural communication skills.

This will help you to pass the Russian language entrance test and You will feel more confident in the Russian-speaking environment while studying, working, communicating.

Students who successfully pass the exam at the end of the course will receive a certificate that will allow them to have a 50% discount on tuition fees for enrollment in the Higher School of Economics - Perm for bachelor's and master's educational programmes.

Two programmes to choose from:

Basic programme

Programme length:
10 months
(from October 2017 till July 2018)
1200 hours
(including 700 classroom studies)
Intramural form of study
Number of students per group:
10-18 students
Tuition fee: 70 000 rubles

Intensive programme

Program length:
2 months
(from February 2018 till March 2018),
420 hours
(including 200 classroom studies)
Intramural form of study
Number of students per group:
10-18 students
Tuition fee: 25 000 rubles

Apply on-line